

Just the TICKET

Words Markus Bidaux

UNLOCK LONDON

Just in time for Pride month, Tour Londres has launched the world's first LGBTQ+ outdoor escape game to play on your mobile while you explore the capital. Covid-safe, the game takes you on a self-guided LGBTQ+ history tour of central London, with escape room-style riddles to be solved along the way. The tour takes about 90 minutes to complete and is available from the Questo app — available on iOS and Android — in English and Spanish.

MOVE YOUR BODY

A new festival celebrating queer club culture is set to hit London this autumn. Body Movements drops on Saturday 9 October and will take place across 16 venues in Hackney Wick. During the day and night, more than 40 emerging and established queer, non-binary and trans artists will represent LGBTQ+ club nights from across the UK, including Adonis, Harpies, Hungama, Love Muscle and Little Gay Brother. They'll be pumping up the jams, so come dressed to party.

bodymovements.co.uk

GET OUT THERE

The world of travel is opening up again (albeit ever so slowly), and LGBTQ+ tour operator Out Adventures are planning trips further ahead than ever before. Their new tour calendar has group trips scheduled for well into 2022, and includes excursions to far-flung destinations including Mongolia and Patagonia, as well as the likes of Italy, Malta and Croatia closer to home. Robert Sharp, owner and cofounder of Out Adventures, told Attitude, "The health and safety of our clients is our driving force, and we will not operate a tour until it's safe to do so. This means we will continue to postpone tours until there is clarity surrounding what travel will look like in the future. If a tour is postponed, we offer our clients the option of a refund or a credit on file with no expiry. It's as simple as that."

outadventures.com

